

MORTON KAPLAN (1921-)

♦Doutor pela Columbia University de Nova York desde 1951, com a publicação de System and Process in International Politics, de 1957, onde vai fazer uma correção estrutural-funcionalista ao anterior realismo do pós-guerra, recorrendo à emergente cibernética e à tradicionalíssima teoria da balança do poder.

United States Foreign Policy 1945 1955, The Brookings Institution, 1956
Systems and Process in International Politics, Nova York, John Wiley & Sons, 1957
The Political Foundations of International Law, John Wiley & Sons, 1961 (com B. KATZENBACH)
“Is International Relations a Discipline?”, in The Journal of Politics, XXIII, 3, pp. 462 466, 1961
New Approaches to International Relations, Nova York, St. Martin's Press, 1968
Macropolitics. Selected Essays on the Philosophy and Science of Politics, Chicago, Aldine, 1969
Formacion del Estado Nacional en América Latina, Buenos Aires, Ediciones Amorrortu, 1976
Towards Professionalism in International Theory. Macrosystem Analysis, Nova York, The Free Press, 1979
Science, Language and the Human Condition, Paragon House, 1984